Rudy J. Koshar : Social Life, Local Politics, and Nazism: Marburg, 1880-1935 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Social Life, Local Politics, and Nazism: Marburg, 1880-1935:

Focusing on Marburg, a contentious university town where voters demonstrated strong electoral support for Adolf

Hitler's National Socialist party, this imaginative study discusses the political role of small-town organizational life and painstakingly reconstructs the full range of Nazi sympathizers' cross-affiliations with local voluntary groups.

[Koshar's] study . . . illustrates better than most how Nazi adherents, too often dismissed as fanatics and criminals, included a shocking number of 'normal' people. A most valuable contribution to the understanding of modern Germany.--Choice
