Not A Serious Source of KnowledgeBy Good Ol' RogerIf you're even moderately aware of the basics of business, such as what you would learn getting an undergraduate degree in business (or maybe in just one or two courses), then this book won't tell you anything you don't already know. It spends a lot of time listing basic terms and defining them. By basic, I mean mentioning that a sole proprietorship is a business run by an individual. I was done with it in 20 minutes and I don't consider myself anywhere close to an expert on the subject.
