Anyone with an artistic skill such as painting, drawing, or pottery can start their own successful art teaching business. Many people interested in learning an artistic skill don't have the space, materials, or facilities to learn on their own at home, and art schools provide them with a place they can go to learn with others without having to purchase expensive looms, kiln

About the AuthorTanya founded and operated her own art school, Jolly Good Art Studio, where she implemented innovative teaching programs for budding artists of all ages, including children with special needs. Based on that experience and other art-related businesses, Tanya also developed a range of workshops for aspiring entrepreneurs. A mentor and coach, she shares her hands-on approach to teaching and to art-based businesses with those who want to start a business doing something they love; creating and teaching art!
